What is the difference between a "class A" & "class B" CDL license?

Class A - You can drive an "18 Wheeler", Straight Truck and Dump Truck.

Class B - You can drive a "Straight Truck" and a dump truck

If you get the passenger and school bus endorsement - You can drive a coach bus and school bus.

This is a straight truck (smaller than an "18 wheeler"). Tank and Hazmat endorsements that you can get on your "CDL Class A or Class B".

You will need a dot physical card from a medical facility to take your permit at DMV.

For Class A - Study sections 1,2,3,5 & 6.

For Class B - Study sections 1,2,3,5 (and section 4 and 10 for passenger and School Bus).
